

Team Building and Development – 1 day

Purpose

This course will enable delegates to work more effectively as a team.

Prerequisites

None

Approach

This course will be interactive throughout the day enabling delegates to draw together the teams' strengths, and work together more effectively. The learning will be focussed around a specific project or situation that is real for the delegates, and will involve some behavioural profiling.

Preparation

Ideally delegates will be a group of people who are currently or will in the future be part of the same team. Delegates will need to have identified a specific project that they are or will need to work together on as a team.
